

Execulink Celebrates 4th Year Sponsoring Turtlefest in Tillsonburg

(Woodstock, ON) May 4, 2026 - Execulink Telecom is proud to announce its continued sponsorship of Turtlefest in Tillsonburg for the fourth consecutive year, reinforcing its commitment to supporting local events that bring communities together.

Turtlefest, one of Tillsonburg's most anticipated annual celebrations, welcomes residents and visitors for a weekend of entertainment, local vendors, family-friendly activities, and community spirit. This year's event will take place June 19–20, promising another exciting and engaging experience for all ages.

As part of its ongoing support, Execulink will be on-site throughout the festival with a dedicated booth, where attendees can meet the team, learn more about Execulink's services, and enjoy fun activities and giveaways.

"We're incredibly proud to be sponsoring Turtlefest for the fourth year in a row," said Eric Davies, Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Execulink Telecom. "Being part of this event year after year allows us to build meaningful connections within the community. Turtlefest is a fantastic celebration of local spirit, and we're excited to once again be right in the middle of it."

Execulink remains committed to investing in the communities it serves by supporting events that foster connection, celebrate local culture, and create memorable experiences for families and residents.

About Execulink Telecom

In operation since 1904, Execulink Telecom has evolved from a small independent local telephone company into one of the leading telecommunications providers in Ontario. Through innovation and forward-thinking, the telecom provider has cultivated what began as local telephony offerings to provide a full-scale suite of telecommunications services including data, internet, television, mobility, and advanced voice features. These services are now available to all levels of industry, encompassing 50,000 business, enterprise, government, and residential customers.
