

Execulink Supports Tillsonburg Lions Club and Salvation Army Kettle Campaign on Day Eight of Gifts of Christmas

(Woodstock, ON) December 18, 2024 – Execulink Telecom is delighted to announce the eighth day of its 7th annual Gifts of Christmas program. Each year, this initiative celebrates the holiday season by donating $500 to 12 incredible organizations, acknowledging their positive impact on local communities.

On this eighth day of giving, Execulink is proud to donate to the Tillsonburg Lions Club. Known for their longstanding dedication to supporting numerous efforts in the Tillsonburg community, the Lions Club has decided to direct this donation to the Salvation Army Kettle Campaign. This campaign plays a vital role in supporting individuals and families in need during the holiday season, ensuring that no one is left behind.

“We’re so proud to support the Tillsonburg Lions Club and their meaningful decision to contribute to the Salvation Army’s Kettle Campaign,” says Ian Stevens, CEO of Execulink Telecom. “Both organizations exemplify the spirit of community and generosity, making a real difference in the lives of many.”

Execulink is grateful for the Tillsonburg Lions Club’s tireless efforts to strengthen the community and for the Salvation Army’s compassionate work in providing hope and assistance to those in need.

About Execulink Telecom

In operation since 1904, Execulink Telecom has evolved from a small independent local telephone company into one of the leading telecommunications providers in Ontario. Through innovation and forward-thinking, the telecom provider has cultivated what began as local telephony offerings to provide a full-scale suite of telecommunications services including data, internet, television, mobility, and advanced voice features. These services are now available to all levels of industry, encompassing 50,000 business, enterprise, government, and residential customers.
