

Execulink's Gifts of Christmas Program Supports Walsh Public School Snack Program on Day Four

(Woodstock, ON) December 16, 2024 – Execulink Telecom is excited to announce the fourth day of its 7th annual Gifts of Christmas program, continuing its tradition of giving back to the communities it serves. Through this initiative, Execulink donates $500 to 12 deserving organizations over 12 days, spreading holiday cheer and supporting meaningful local causes.

On the fourth day of giving, Execulink is proud to support the Walsh Public School Snack Program, which provides healthy snacks for 400 students, four days a week, throughout the school year. This program plays a vital role in the Walsh Public School community, ensuring that students stay fueled and focused for learning.

“Access to nutritious snacks is essential for young learners to thrive academically and socially,” says Ian Stevens, CEO of Execulink Telecom. “The Walsh Public School Snack Program is a fantastic initiative, and we’re honored to support its mission of nurturing the well-being and success of students.”

Execulink recognizes the tremendous impact of programs like this in fostering a healthy, supportive learning environment and applauds the Walsh Public School community for their dedication to student success.

About Execulink Telecom

In operation since 1904, Execulink Telecom has evolved from a small independent local telephone company into one of the leading telecommunications providers in Ontario. Through innovation and forward-thinking, the telecom provider has cultivated what began as local telephony offerings to provide a full-scale suite of telecommunications services including data, internet, television, mobility, and advanced voice features. These services are now available to all levels of industry, encompassing 50,000 business, enterprise, government, and residential customers.
