

Execulink Donates to Norwich Public Library on Day Nine of Gifts of Christmas Program

(Woodstock, ON) December 19, 2024 – Execulink Telecom is proud to announce the ninth day of its 7th annual Gifts of Christmas program. Each year, Execulink donates $500 to 12 exceptional organizations, celebrating their invaluable contributions to their communities.

On this ninth day of giving, Execulink is delighted to support the Norwich Public Library, a branch of the Oxford County Library system. The library plays an essential role in the Norwich community by promoting and providing universal access to information, ideas, and enriching experiences in welcoming and inclusive spaces.

“The Norwich Public Library is a cornerstone of the community, fostering lifelong learning, creativity, and connection,” says Ian Stevens, CEO of Execulink Telecom. “We are honored to support their mission of ensuring everyone has access to knowledge and engaging opportunities.”

From books and digital resources to programs and events, the Norwich Public Library continues to be a vital resource for residents of all ages. Execulink’s donation will help the library further its mission to inspire and empower the Norwich community.

As the Gifts of Christmas program progresses, Execulink is excited to recognize more organizations that make a lasting impact in the communities they serve.

About Execulink Telecom

In operation since 1904, Execulink Telecom has evolved from a small independent local telephone company into one of the leading telecommunications providers in Ontario. Through innovation and forward-thinking, the telecom provider has cultivated what began as local telephony offerings to provide a full-scale suite of telecommunications services including data, internet, television, mobility, and advanced voice features. These services are now available to all levels of industry, encompassing 50,000 business, enterprise, government, and residential customers.
