

Execulink Supports Fusion Youth Centre on Day Seven of Gifts of Christmas

(Woodstock, ON) December 16, 2024 – Execulink Telecom is thrilled to announce the seventh day of its 7th annual Gifts of Christmas program. Each year, this initiative brings holiday cheer by donating $500 to 12 remarkable organizations over 12 days, celebrating their vital contributions to their communities.

On this seventh day of giving, Execulink is proud to support the Fusion Youth Centre in Ingersoll. Fusion provides after-school programming for youth aged 10-18, creating a safe and inclusive space for young people to express themselves, build friendships, and explore their passions. The center offers a wide variety of programs and opportunities that may not be available elsewhere, empowering youth to thrive in a supportive environment.

“The Fusion Youth Centre is an incredible resource for young people in Ingersoll,” says Ian Stevens, CEO of Execulink Telecom. “Their dedication to providing a safe, creative, and inclusive space makes a profound difference in the lives of youth. We’re honored to support their mission through our Gifts of Christmas program.”

Fusion’s programming focuses on fostering community, creativity, and connection, making it a vital hub for youth development and engagement in the region.

Execulink encourages everyone to learn more about the Fusion Youth Centre and how it continues to positively impact the lives of young people in Ingersoll.

About Execulink Telecom

In operation since 1904, Execulink Telecom has evolved from a small independent local telephone company into one of the leading telecommunications providers in Ontario. Through innovation and forward-thinking, the telecom provider has cultivated what began as local telephony offerings to provide a full-scale suite of telecommunications services including data, internet, television, mobility, and advanced voice features. These services are now available to all levels of industry, encompassing 50,000 business, enterprise, government, and residential customers.
