

Execulink Celebrates 120 Anniversary at Woodstock Head Office

(Woodstock, ON) October 23rd, 2024 – Execulink Telecom marked a significant milestone last Thursday as the company celebrated its 120th anniversary with an exclusive event at its Woodstock headquarters. From 2-4 pm, past and present board members, vendors, customers, and Execulink staff gathered to honour the company's remarkable legacy of innovation, customer service, and community involvement.

The celebration featured appetizers catered by local favorite Panino's, a beautiful celebratory cake, and an impressive "Evolution of Technology" display, which highlighted the rich history and growth of Execulink. The exhibit showcased how the company has evolved from its early days as a local telephone provider to the full-service telecommunications leader it is today, offering Fibre Internet, TV, Home Phone, and Smart Home services to communities across Ontario.

Since May, Execulink has been hosting 120th anniversary celebrations across their service areas, including events in various communities where the company has provided its trusted services. Each stop on the anniversary tour has included fun family activities, giveaways, and community engagement to celebrate Execulink's deep connection with its customers and local businesses. The grand event in Woodstock marked the culmination of this months-long celebration, bringing together key stakeholders to reflect on the company's long history of success.

"Reaching 120 years is a testament to our dedication to serving our customers with cutting-edge technology and outstanding service," said Ian Stevens, CEO of Execulink. "We've grown alongside our communities and built lasting relationships that span generations. This celebration honours not just Execulink's history but also the customers, partners, and staff who have been instrumental in our success."

At the event, Jerry Acchione, Mayor of Woodstock, presented Execulink with a special certificate of recognition, celebrating their remarkable 120 years in service. In his speech, Mayor Acchione praised Execulink for their enduring impact, stating, "120 years speaks to their legacy of innovation, adaptability, and commitment to serving your customers and community. In a time where communication is more important than ever, Execulink has been there keeping us connected."

The event fostered a sense of reflection and appreciation for the past, while also looking ahead to the exciting future of telecommunications. Guests mingled with board members and employees, sharing memories and stories about their time with Execulink, further cementing the company's strong ties to the community.

About Execulink Telecom In operation since 1904, Execulink Telecom has evolved from a small independent local telephone company into one of the leading telecommunications providers in Ontario. Through innovation and forward-thinking, we cultivated our local telephony offerings to provide a full-scale suite of telecommunications services including data, internet, television, mobility and advanced voice features. These services are now available to all levels of industry, encompassing 50,000 business, enterprise, government, and residential customers.

###

PR Contact: Nicole Paterson | marketing@execulinktelecom.ca | (519) 456-7200 x 7918